

MARCh HIGH SCHOOL PLAN

Literature Class Descriptions

In order to help parents plan for their students' high school credits MARCh offers the following options. Choose one from each category to fulfill required credits for your student's transcript. Four from each category are required. The classes are listed in order of difficulty; plan according to your student's readiness for each subject. Class descriptions are on the MARCh surveys:

Social studies/history

World Geography*

Combined World History and Literature (*can add in geography
on your own to fulfill credit)

Combined American History and Literature (*can add in geography
on your own to fulfill credit)

American Government (1/2 credit)
Economics (1/2 credit)

Literature/composition

Intro to literature and composition

IEW 301 (read literature at home)

Academic writing (read literature at home)

Honors World Literature (history credit done at home or elsewhere)

Honors American Literature (history credit
done at home or elsewhere)

British Literature
Shakespeare (1/2 credit)
British Christian Authors (1/2 credit)